

Sno-Park Permits

General Information

You must have a valid Sno-Park permit displayed in the windshield of your vehicle if you park in designated winter recreation parking areas (Sno-Parks) between November 15 and April 30. Sno-Parks are located in all mountain passes of the state and in most recognized ski, snowmobile, and snow play areas.

There are three types of Sno-Park permits available:

- Annual
- 3-Day (consecutive)
- Daily

Permits are transferable from vehicle to vehicle.

Fees & Fines

Type	Fee
Annual Sno-Park Permit	$20*
3-Day (consecutive) Sno-Park Permit	$7*
Daily Sno-Park Permit	$3*

* Agents (resorts, sporting goods stores, and other retail outlets) are allowed to charge an additional service fee for each permit they sell.

Parking in a designated area without a permit may result in a $30 fine.

How to Purchase

Permits are sold at all DMV offices and by permit agents in resorts, sporting goods stores, and other retail outlets.

Note: Agents are allowed to charge an additional service fee for each permit they sell.

Reciprocity

Sno-Park permits issued by Washington, California and Idaho are honored in Oregon, and Oregon permits are honored in those states. However, if your vehicle has Washington plates, you must have a Washington permit to park in a winter recreation area in Washington
